

InnoVISION

Ecosystem Awards

October 13th, 2020 | Hosting City: Tel Aviv

IS YOUR REGIONAL ECOSYSTEM THRIVING? GET RECOGNIZED.

The global InnoVision Ecosystem Awards are a celebration of innovative ecosystems around the world, annually showcasing achievements made and applied internationally.

When and where:

This year's InnoVision event will be held digitally on October 13th within the DLD Sync Tel Aviv 2020 event, and broadcasted worldwide from the innovative city of Tel Aviv.

How it works:

The event will include pitches from 8 final nominees, all presenting the most outstanding achievement to come out of their regions this year. These 8 ecosystems will be selected by the InnoVision Committee, headed by world-renowned serial entrepreneur, Dr. Yossi Vardi. Cities and regional ecosystems around the globe can apply to participate in the competition.

What we are looking for:

Whether you're a municipality, district, or tech park, we're on the search for the most impactful, unique, creative, and innovative achievements being made around the world.
